Mr. Thurmond

A man who will be remembered for the guidance and self-sacrifice he gave to Cumberland and its' students.

Memory, that subtle function of the burg to write "The Scroll". It is to this and Mr. Thurmond—that we dedicate

*Words can never express Toward two men of
Who through the hardest
Or victory
Helped us rehearse
And prepare our Regretting that their
As a token of
In memory of Mr. Thurmond
We make this* mind which recalls, inspired Carl Sandburg's function—to the memory of Dr. Frese this, the 1965 Lamp.

Dr. Frese

Here we see the Youthfulness of Dr. Frese as a young man, but we were privileged to share the intellectual youthfulness that he possessed.

*our true emotion
such great devotion;
moments of strife
banners unfurled
our scripts of life parts for the world.
is not more we can do
our appreciation and Dr. Frese
our dedication.*

THE SCROLL

Memory is when you look back and the answers float in to who? what? when? where?

*The members who were there then are repeated on a screen are recalled on a scroll are moved in a miniature drama, are collected and recollected
for actions, speeches, silences, set forth by images of the mind
and made in a mingling mist to do again and to do over precisely what they did do once this is memory-- sometimes slurred and blurred-- this is remembering sometimes wrecking the images and proceeding again to reconstruct what happened and how,
the many little involved answers
to who? what? when? where?
and more involved than any How? How?*

--Carl Sandburg

REGISTRAR

Miss Joyce Emert, the sponsor of the college Annual, and the Annual Staff deserve the commendation of all of us for their efforts in the production of the 1964-65 Lamp.

As Cumberland has moved into the four-year program, there has been evidence of increased maturity and a sense of responsibility on the part of members of the student body. This is evident in the academic sphere as well as in the religious and social areas of college life.

I am confident that the class of 1965 will be one of the outstanding classes in the history of the college.

I extend to each one my heartiest congratulations and best wishes.

Sincerely,
Dr. J. M. Boswell

Cumberland's Cross-Country Team finished the 1964 season with a 7-4 record.

The harriers of Coach Henry Morgan started the season off with a surprising victory over the University of Kentucky.

The majority of Cumberland's meets were on the road this year, but when home they dominated their course as opponents seemed to wilter on the half-mile long hill.

Cumberland runners set six course records this season and once again kept its string of Southern States Invitational victories intact as they added their fourth consecutive title.

For the first time in the four year history of the Southern States, a Cumberland runner took individual honors as Nelson Sizemore, a Freshman, set a course record of 17:24.

The future looks bright for Cumberland as only two seniors will be lost by graduation: Jack Faulkner and Julian Harris. The remainder of the squad consists of two sophomores and eleven freshman.

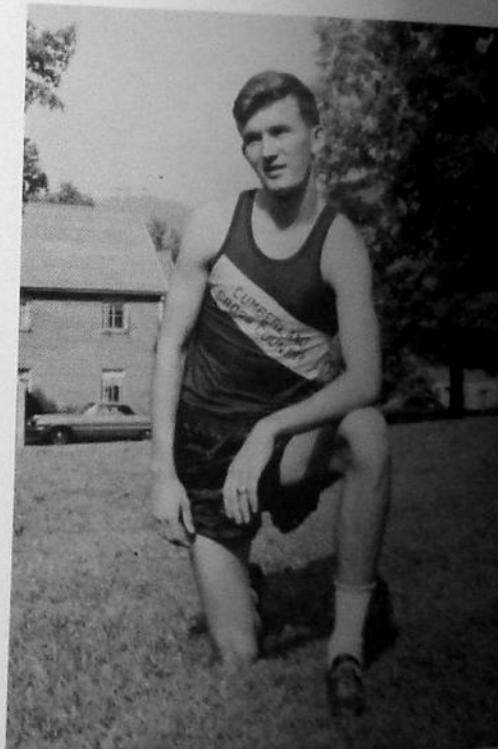

JACK FAULKNER
Sr. (Captain)

In the past seasons at Cumberland the Faulkner name has set many records in both cross-country and track. This year Jack kept up a family tradition and broke four records in cross-country and hopes for more in track.

Cumberland harriers seem to dominate the miniature mountain that usually proves to be a prominent factor for victory on their home course.

Freshman Nelson Sizemore receives congratulations from Coach Henry Morgan and Official Timer, John P. Duke, Jr., after his record breaking performance in the Southern States Cross-Country Run.

Senior, Alvin Sharp serves the team as trainer. In the past four years Alvin has moved from statistician to manager to trainer.

The "biggest" man on the team is manager V. L. Stonecipher. He may be little but he guards a mean water bucket.

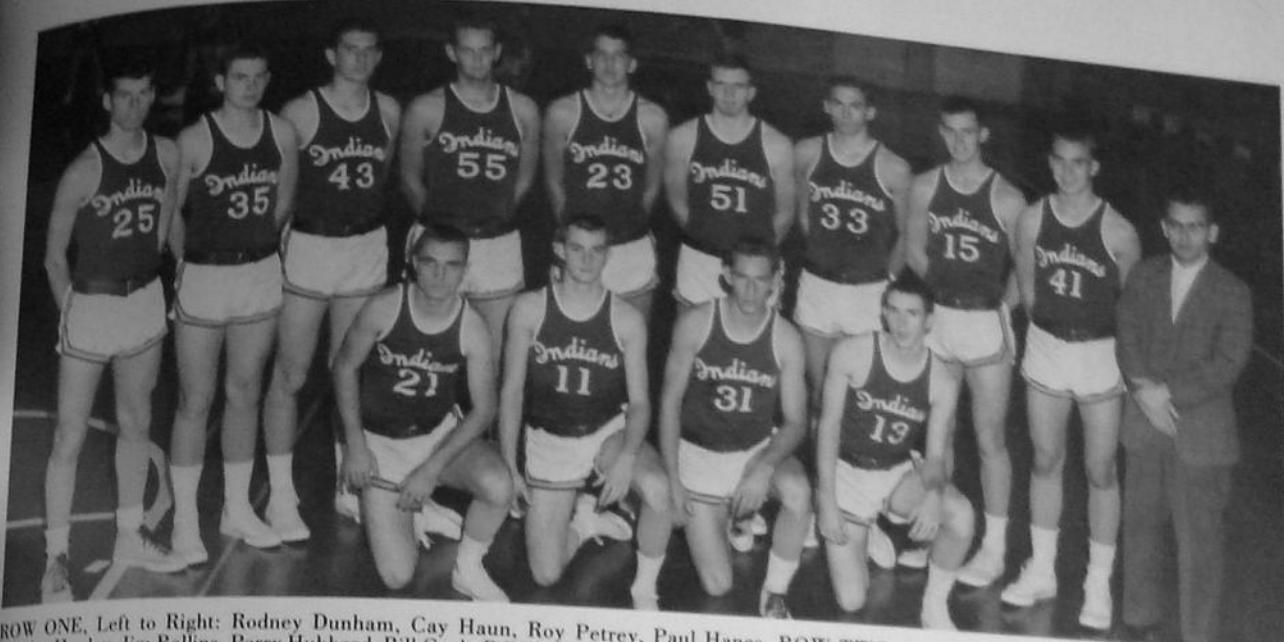

Two points turn Indian players, Brown, Falin, and Yahnig down floor for defense.

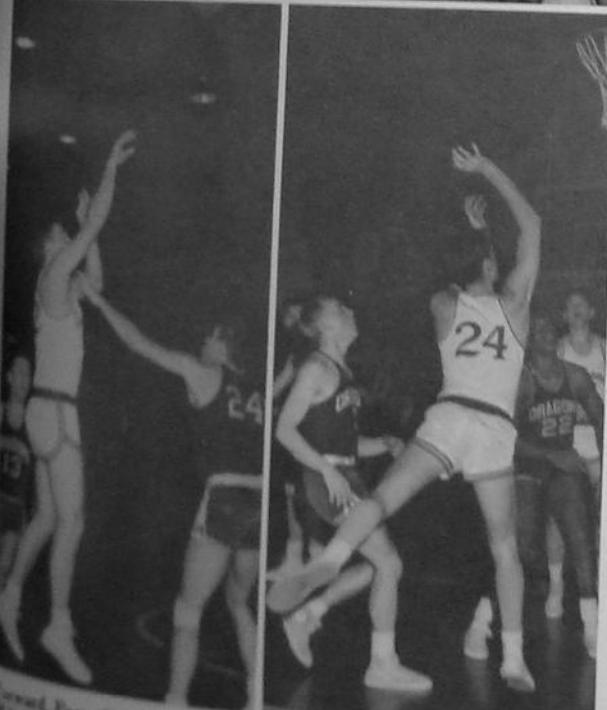

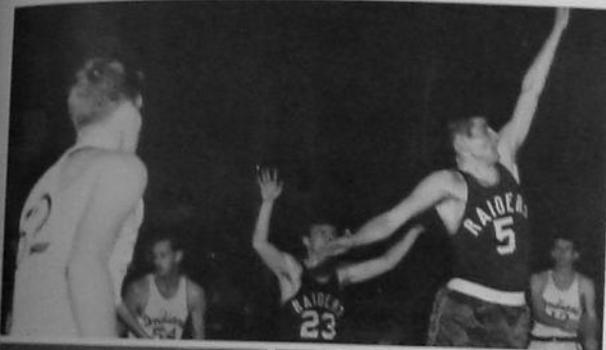

Veteran, Carl Yahnig goes high for a rebound.

The Tumbling and Trampoline Team of Cumberland College has never become a sport as far as intercollegiate competition is concerned. The primary reason for this is the lack of interest in Gymnastics by the colleges in our surrounding area.

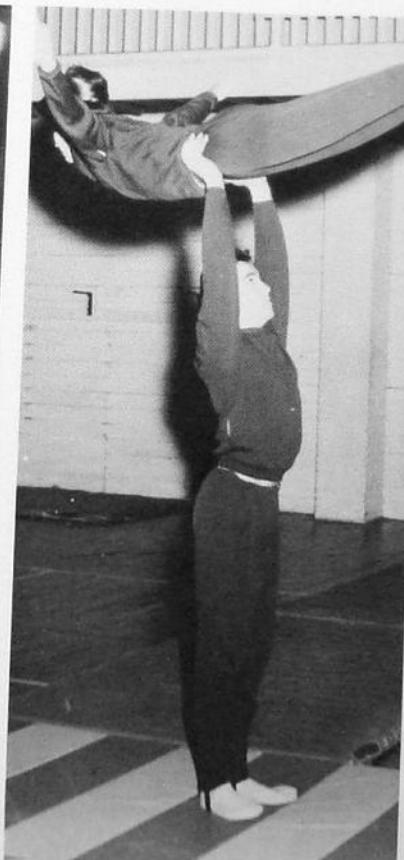

Cumberland's Rebounders travel to numerous surrounding high schools to put on performances for the younger generation, hoping to build up interest in Gymnastics.

Instructed by Mr. John P. Duke Jr., the Tumbling and Trampoline Team has had one of its better years as far as the number of outstanding individuals are concerned.

There is hope that within the next few years the interest in this sport will build up to make it possible for Tumbling and Trampoline to become the schools eighth inter-collegiate sport.

Veteran Mike Hurley, shows perfect form in executing a backward somersault in layout position as he eyes the trampoline to prepare for his dismount.

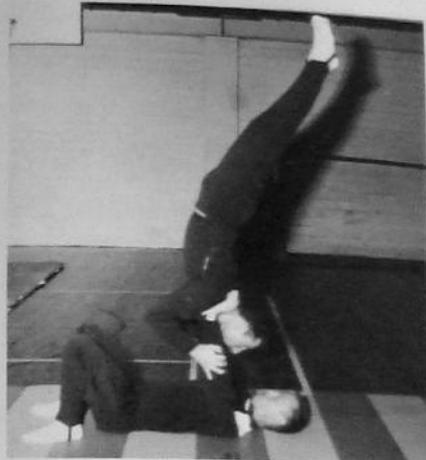

Anne Faulkner and Zafer Roback go through a high swan balancing act before a local high school group.

Sophomore, Anne Faulkner, goes through the motions of performing a front drop during half-time of the Clay County vs. Faculty game.

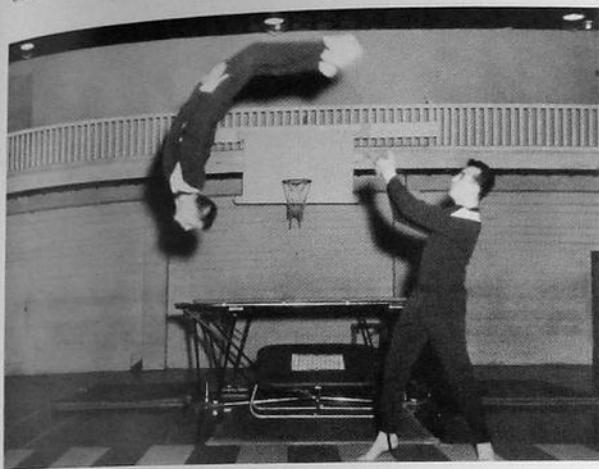

Junior, Lary Helton, is in the middle of completing a double forward somersault.

Teammates, Vic Edwards (bottom) and Ed Moses, show upperclassman how to achieve the low arm to arm balance.

Performing a backward somersault seems to be just another trick to freshman, Eddie Moses.

This stunt is called, a backward somersault with thrower. It is performed by Zafer Roback, thrower, and Mike Hurley.

Cumberland College Clowns get into the act as Phil Smith (top) performs a chicken and Mike Hurley (bottom) does a backward somersault through a hula hoop.

Judo

The 1964 school year marked the beginning of Cumberland's seventh intercollegiate sport: Judo.

Cumberland's matmen met with Campbellsville and lost a close match but came back with some brilliant performances.

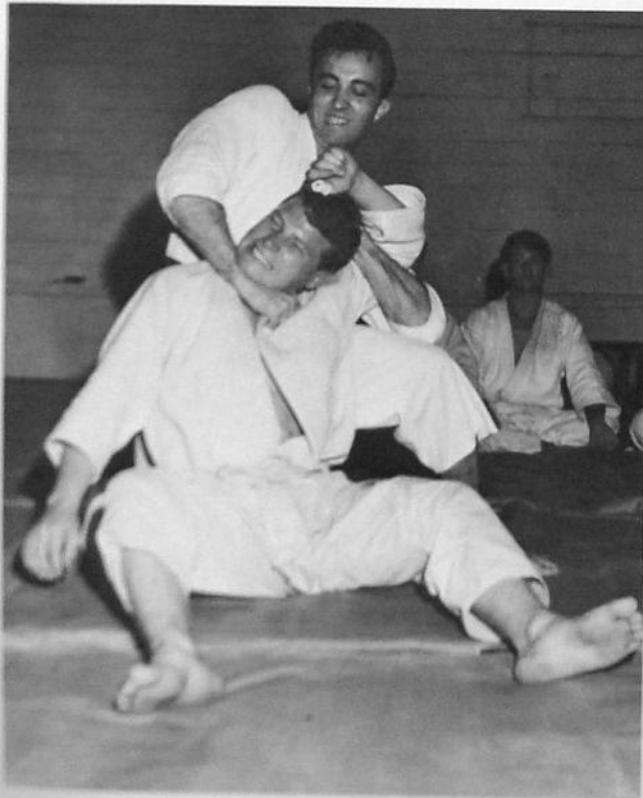

It would be very hard to pick out an outstanding individual, as each boy made big improvements throughout the season.

Two individuals are primarily responsible for bringing Judo to Cumberland: Dr. O. J. Helvey and Zafer Roback.

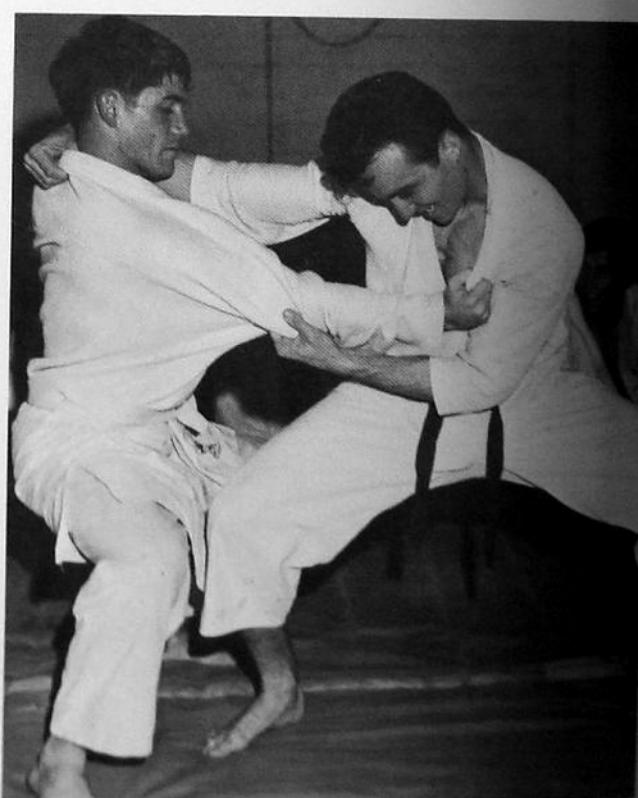

Judo is a fairly new sport to Coach Helvey but to Zafer, Judo started in September of 1960 in Inchon, Korea, while in the service. After much hard work Zafer successfully passed the requirements to receive a black belt in July 1961, which is the last belt in reaching the highest honor one can in this sport.

In February, 1961, Zafer took up the art of Karate and by July, 1961, he was awarded his green belt.

The future looks bright since only one will be lost by graduation and the Judo interest builds up in the other colleges in the area.

Sophomore, George Ingram, grits his teeth in pain as Zafer Roback applies a choke.

Tom Cloer and Zafer Roback look for the opportunity to get a take down.

Ova Pitman seems to be looking for a landing spot as veteran, Zafer Roback, sends him through the air with the greatest of ease.

W. L. Grimes is caught by one of the three main choke holds as Zafer gets ready to go for a pin.

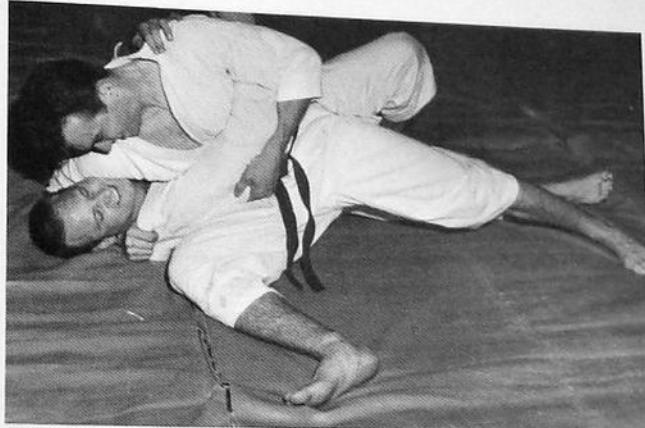

Tom Cloer will learn through practice not to get caught sleeping with an opponent like a black belt holder.

Vic Edwards is on his feet one minute and the next he is ready to collide with the mat as Zafer comes through with a very quick take down.

Freshman, Dave Slusher, twists and turns trying to get out of the pinning combination applied by Zafer.

Probably the most effective choke hold in Judo is what Zafer uses to handle "Big Bad" John Holloman.

Freshman, Gary Cummins, tries bridging to get out of the pinning combination that is about to bring a victory to Zafer.

Track

Track at Cumberland has been a big success since its inauguration in 1959. For the past six years the Thinlies of Cumberland College have been a threat to the track powers in the South.

The Cindermen of 1964 finished the season with an 8-3 record.

The outlook for the 1965 season is bright with the return of four out of the top five scorers from last season: Jack Faulkner with 127, Gary Lunsford with 78, Herman LeForce with 76½, and Gordon Bocock with 49. The only person missing from the top five is freshman sensation Pete Melzoni who set four school records and scored 201 points for an average of over twenty points per meet. The Cumberland speedster finished the '64 season with an unblemished mark in both high and low hurdle competition.

Two freshmen, Jim Rollins and Rick Sample are the strongest contenders for the traveling squad with some other divotmen as possible entries.

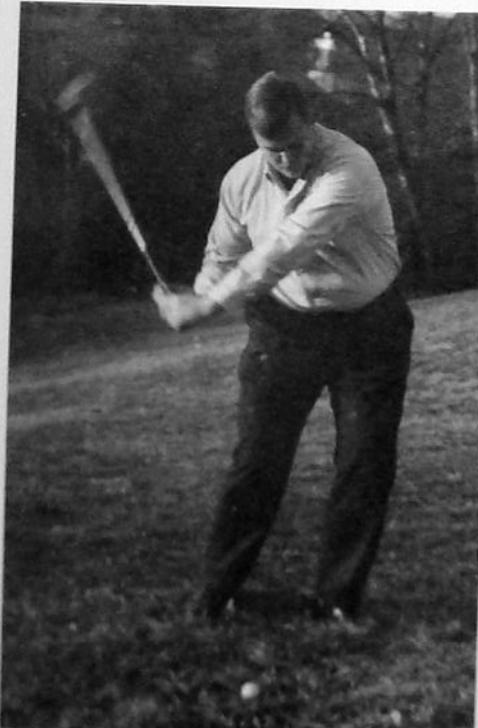

The big men back from last year are seniors, Don Collins and Jim Dunn.
